

Inverleith Angle

We are delighted to extend a very warm welcome to the GHA tour party who have made the journey east for this rearranged National 1 fixture. We hope that President Euan Baillie, Director Of Rugby Rangì Jericevich, coach Euan Clark and their players, committee members and supporters enjoy their visit to Inverleith.

GHA currently sit fifth in National 1, having recorded nine wins and eight losses in the league to date. One of those wins was that thumping 83-19 victory over us at Braidholm back in early September – I'm happy to say that my course of therapy is now complete and that I am fully prepared for whatever today's fixture might bring!

If you are reading this at Inverleith, many thanks for choosing to watch our game rather than the one taking place in Dublin this afternoon. I, like Colin Rigby, Chris Anderson and a number of our players, will be sitting in the stands at the Aviva as you read this, frantically checking our phones for Facebook updates from HQ – please keep them nice and detailed, VP Breeze!

While there are no Stewart's Melville players involved in the senior Scotland squad, Connor Boyle has been selected for the Scotland U20 team to play Ireland at Donnybrook on Friday night. Quite an achievement for somebody who has only just reached his 18th birthday. Connor is captain of the College 1st XV and has played several games for the senior 1st XV this season.

Connor joins two other Stew Mellies – Ross Thomson and Jamie Hodgson – in the squad, and the club wishes them all the best as they try to emulate the recent victory over England.

Our game against Falkirk last week fell foul of the Beast From The East, and has been rescheduled for Saturday 14th April. Before then we have league games against Selkirk (A), Gala (H) and Kelso (A); the Gala game will take place at Inverleith on 24th March and will be preceded by a lunch featuring a 'Maroon' guest speaker who now spends more of his time at Murrayfield than he does at the barbers ...

Your support at all of these league games would be very welcome – we're still alive and kicking!

Another date for your diary is Friday 27th April, when the annual Club Dinner will take place at Inverleith. Regardless of results between now and then, an excellent evening is guaranteed.

Enjoy the game today – Simon looks forward to seeing you all in the bar afterwards!
